

In This Issue

Gifts for the Holidays

Thank You for Your Support

Historic Preservation Gifts for the Holidays

Historic preservation gifts are perfect for this time of year. Below are suggestions:

Tickets to the 2014 Gourmet Gala - Lancaster's premier food and beverage social. This year the gala will be on Sunday, May 18, from 4 pm to 7 pm at the historic Mylin House (1787) and Willow Valley Conference Center in Willow Street.

The cost is $75 for members of the Historic Preservation Trust or the Central Pennsylvania Preservation Society or $85 for non-members. Blocks of 10 tickets may be purchased for $650.

Floral arrangement in Watt & Shand baluster (only a limited number of balusters remain). Floral arrangement by Connie Eckert.

Price $95

Thank You for Your Support During 2013

Members and donors have made it possible for the Preservation Trust to move forward during 2013 by:

- reaching out to municipal officials countywide

- reintroducing the historic site marker program

- redesigning our website (www.hptrust.org)

- beginning an initiative to digitize our archives of more than 10,000 historic Lancaster County properties

- working with individuals and organizations to encourage and facilitate historic preservation

- hosting one of our most successful Gourmet Galas. The venue was Lime Springs Farm.

- attracting a record attendance to our annual meeting and awards program

Set of four pen and ink drawings by Dr. Paul Ripple -- Fulton Opera House, Wheatland, Penn Square and Rockford Plantation

Price $40

Christmas at the Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess House - a pen and ink drawing by Dr. Paul Ripple

Price $10

Pack of 10 Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess house note cards

Price $10

Richard Hess water color print of the Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess house

Price $20

Wooden collectible of the Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess house

Price $20

Ironworks of Lancaster ornament

Price $10

- presenting a dozen historic preservation awards

These are highlights, and with your support during 2014 we look forward to making even more advances.

Preserve Our Past Campaign Underway

Over the next several weeks, you may receive a request for financial support. We do appreciate your giving this consideration. The Preservation Trust depends upon community generosity to help us sustain our operations.

See Preserve Our Past Campaign at <http://hptrust.org/support> for more information.

Thank you for helping keep historic Lancaster County... historic

About the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County

Preservation Trust headquarters – the Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess house at 123 North Prince Street in downtown Lancaster

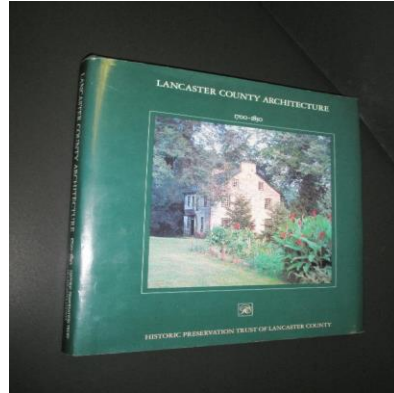

Lancaster's Architecture:
The Past's Gift to the City's Future

Price $10

Lancaster County
Architecture:
1700-1850

Price $42.50

Call 717-291-5861 to place order, or send an e-mail to joepatterson@hptrust.org. You also may stop by our office at 123 North Prince Street in downtown Lancaster between 9 am and 3 pm, Monday through Thursday.

Post Your Business on www.hptrust.org

Post your business on the Historic Preservation Resource Directory for quick access by those looking for professionals who can assist with preservation/restoration projects. Or, just post to show your support for historic preservation in Lancaster County.

See <http://hptrust.org/resources/>

Founded in 1966 to "stem the rapid destruction of historic properties in Lancaster County, the Historic Preservation Trust's mission is to encourage and facilitate the protection and preservation of historic structures countywide.

The Preservation Trust has been directly involved in preserving important Lancaster County landmarks and has provided advice, assistance and guidance in the protection of others.

The Preservation Trust is a member-supported, 501(c)3 non-profit organization located in the historic Sehner-Ellicott-von Hess House (1787) at 123 North Prince Street in downtown Lancaster.

Visit
www.hptrust.org

Give us a call - 717-291-5861
or 717-823-7556
e-mail us - joepatterson@hptrust.org