

Historic Preservation
Trust
of Lancaster County

June 2023

Dear Friends of Lancaster County Agriculture,

The Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County and the Historical Society of Cocalico Valley invite you and your company to join us as a sponsor of our upcoming Lancaster County Barn Tour beginning in October 2023. This selfguided Barn Tour will highlight the finest examples of historically and architecturally significant barns throughout Lancaster County.

Sponsorship opportunities and levels are detailed on the enclosed form. Sponsorship of the tour, regardless of level, awards your company the opportunity to be featured in our beautiful 8-1/2 x 11-inch keepsake tour book that participants will use to navigate their way through Lancaster County's rich agricultural community. The tour book will include both historic and current photos of the barns (and their outbuildings) along with a detailed description of their significance to our history.

We are anticipating strong support and interest in the Barn Tour. The tour books will be available for purchase at various locations throughout the County. We also anticipate the Barn Tour to be used not only by our residents, who are interested in our local history, but by the many tourists who flock to Lancaster County annually. By helping to sponsor this tour, you are helping to educate others on our unique agricultural history and culture.

Please complete and return the Lancaster County Barn Tour Sponsorship form by July 31, 2023. Please direct all questions to: Elaine Bowman, eb7243@dejazzd.com, 717-333-9651; or Angela Stewart, stewarts@ptd.net, 717-471-8260.

Sincerely yours,

Elaine Bowman
